

TRAUT

COMPANIES

320-251-5090
800-728-5091
P.O. Box 547
32640 Co. Rd. 133
St. Joseph, MN 56374
trautcompanies.com

 /trautcompanies

Daryl Karasch

President & Sonic Drill Manager

320-249-6317
darylk@trautcompanies.com

Safety always comes first at Traut Companies.

We provide over 700 hours of training and certifications annually with our safety committee and leadership team. We also have a full-time safety coordinator on staff. Brad Kirckof is a retired fire firefighter and safety trainer with extensive experience. He can be reached at 320-251-5090 or bradk@trautcompanies.com.

- » Tailgate meetings and JSA's
- » MSHA certification
- » OSHA 40-hour HAZWOPER certification
- » First Aid, CPR, and AED certification
- » Hazardous Materials and AWAIR certification

TRAUT COMPANIES'
EXPERIENCED DRILL TEAMS
HAVE BEEN SONIC DRILLING
SINCE 1998!

SONIC DRILLING

FOUR RIG FLEET:

Three Versa-Sonic rigs with 50K heads on Kenworth trucks
SonicDrill (SDC550) track-mounted large size Sonic rigs with 50k heads
Skid loaders are provided on job sites
Air knife available

CAPABILITIES:

- » Core samples can be taken up to 600 feet deep
 - 4-inch and 6-inch diameter continuous cores in unconsolidated and solid formations*
 - 6-inch, 8-inch and 10-inch diameter temporary casing liner*
- » 4 inch x 5 feet Sonic Lexon liner cores
- » Install monitoring or temporary wells up to 6-inch diameter
- » Ability to do water profiling and vapor sampling
- » Well abandonment and overshoot capabilities
- » Test borings for municipal and high production wells
- » Temporary wells for capacity test
- » Support truck and rig can be separated to reconfigure for small locations
- » Drill all over the contiguous United States
- » Experience in drilling through water on a barge/mudbuggy
- » Specialize in artesian well control
- » Video camera, gamma logs, heat-pulse flow meter, and acoustic televiwer can be used on Sonic boreholes

WE KNOW WATER